Final exams or coursework with final exams?

All qualifications have the same number of UCAS points. It is often good to do a combination of coursework and non coursework subjects as this minimises overemphasis on final exams. It helps to develop different skills.

What sets us apart from other colleges?

- 1. We are a learning community – average class size is 14.
- 2. We are truly comprehensive
- 3. We take the best of a school environment and combine it with the freedom of a sixth form

Our ethos

Raising achievement

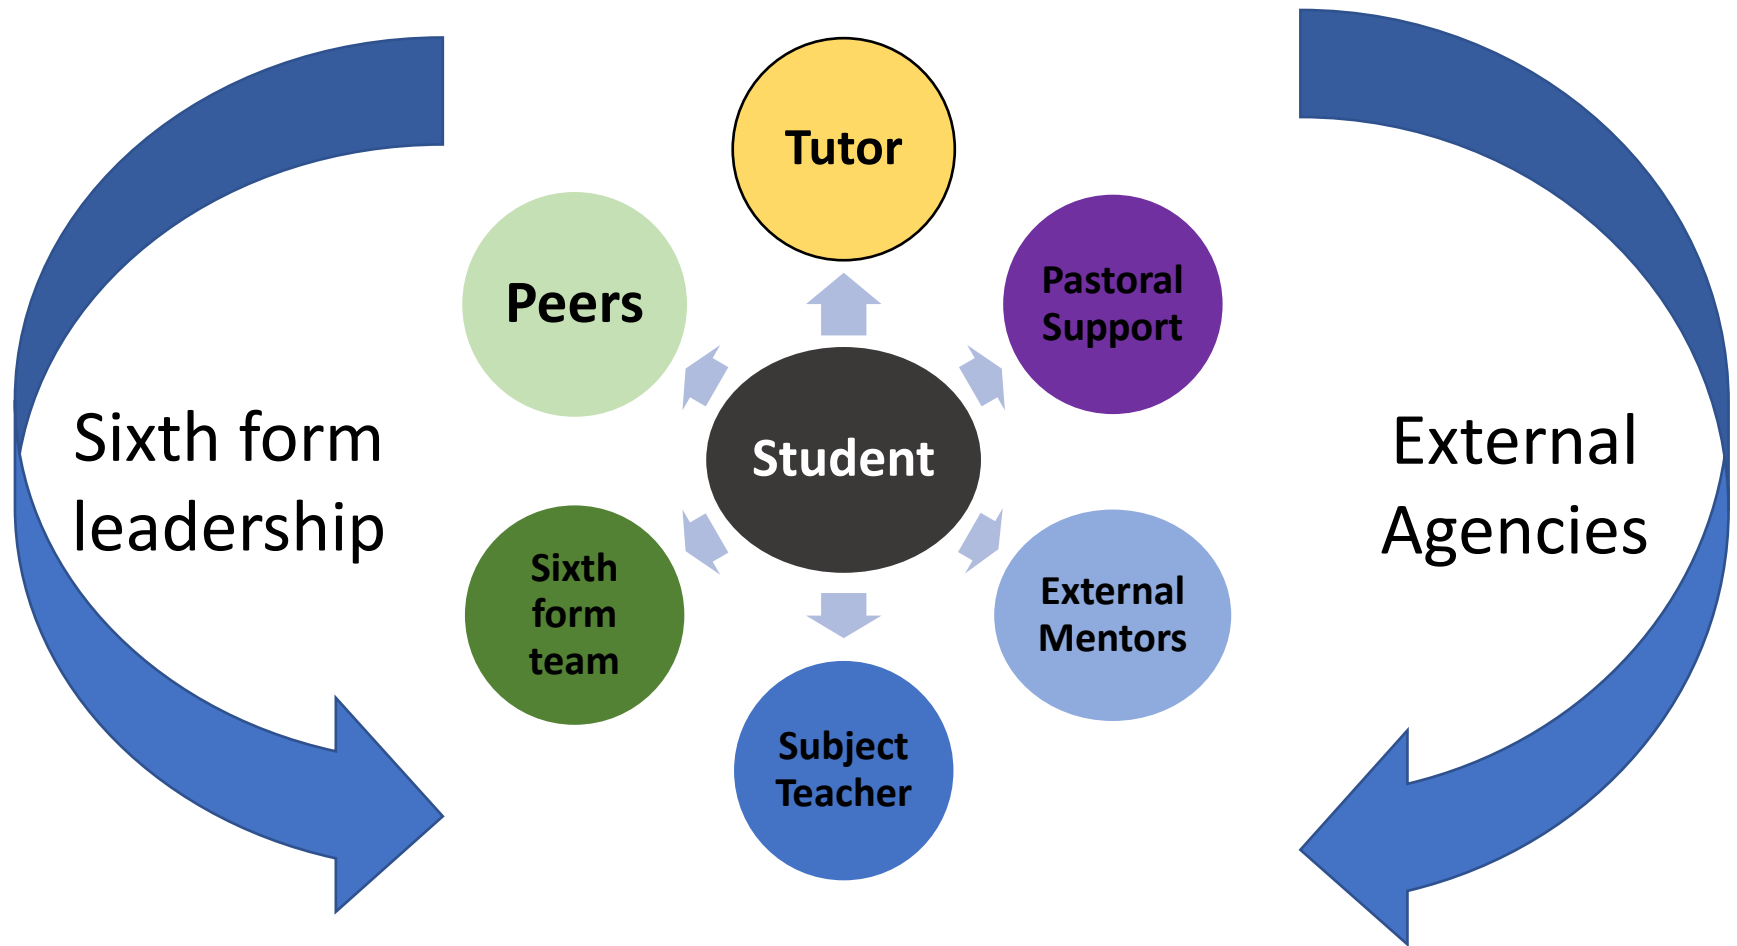

Removing barriers
